

Stock Exchange

DISRUPTION IS REAL

- Stock exchanges globally are faced with ever increasing compliance needs and security risks
- Stock Market L&D professionals struggle to prioritize between training that is legally required Vs. training that helps employees develop professionally
- This is one industry where constantly upgrading skills and knowledge is a priority not just for own employees, but for the large customer base as well
- Organizing and distributing learning content from multiple sources to large consumer base is arduous
