

Designed for Learning Success.

The EdCast Learning Experience Platform includes the integration with PluralSight for a robust learning journey.

Through EdCast integration with PluralSight, EdCast integrates with their content platform and builds a unified catalogue of learning content that is accessible through the LXP. The EdCast LXP uses Machine Language (ML) to map content to a unified skills model & presents recommendations to learners based on their self-selected learning goals & skills.

PluralSight is a leading content provider that offers an expansive library of courses that focus on in-demand topics such as cloud, data security, software development, infrastructure and many more. Within their platform, learners have access to a range of learning paths, video- & non-video based content, & skill assessments.
